REPUBLICAN WOMEN ISSUE CALL FOR FAVORITE TEACHERS

(City, State) – The (insert state) Federation of Republican Women is currently seeking nominees for the “My Favorite Teacher” Award.

Both retired and current teachers are eligible to receive this award. Teachers must have a minimum of five years teaching experience, and may be male or female. Nominations may be submitted by any third party.

A panel of local and state leaders will review all nominations. Participants in the panel will include: (insert names and titles of panelists).

The winner of the “My Favorite Teacher” Award will be announced at (insert event of your state’s choosing), and will then be eligible to participate in the award program at the national level. The winner of the National Federation of Republican Women’s (NFRW) “My Favorite Teacher” Award will be chosen by a panel of judges and be honored at NFRW’s Biennial Convention in September.

The “My Favorite Teacher” Award began in 2001 during No Child Left Behind State Summits hosted by NFRW. The purpose of the award is to acknowledge those outstanding teachers across America who have encouraged students to dream big.

For more information or an official nomination form, please contact (insert state federation contact information). All forms are due to (insert state) Federation of Republican Women by (insert date).

Founded in 1938, the NFRW is one of the largest women’s political organizations in the country with more than 1,800 local clubs nationwide. The grassroots organization recruits and elects Republican candidates, advocates the Party’s philosophy and initiatives, and empowers women in the political process.
