

BONO

U.S. Congresswoman, California

A long-time resident of Southern California, Congresswoman Mary Bono was elected to Congress in 1998 after a special election was held to fill the seat left vacant by her late husband, Congressman Sonny Bono. She represents California's 45th district, which includes the Palm Springs area, and serves on the House Energy and Commerce Committee. As a youth, Bono became an accomplished gymnast while training with the team Gymnastics Olympica. She has two children and recently announced her engagement to Congressman Connie Mack (R-FL).
