

DANDO

President/CEO, San Jose Silicon Valley Chamber of Commerce

A 30-year resident of San Jose, Calif., Pat Dando was appointed president and CEO of the San Jose Silicon Valley Chamber of Commerce in 2005. She has served as director of local government affairs for Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger, vice mayor of San Jose and member of the San Jose City Council. She also has served on several professional, policy and community boards and committees, including National League of Cities and National Homeland Security. She and her husband, Bob, have three children and seven grandchildren.