

MORGAN

Member, NFRW Leadership Development Committee

In addition to serving on the NFRW board, Argiro Morgan is executive vice president of the Louisiana FRW and chairman of LFRW's "Up with Words" dictionary project and My Favorite Teacher committee. An avid volunteer for political and community causes, Morgan is co-founder of an organization that aids troops wounded in Iraq and Afghanistan. She holds a doctorate in English education, and is a retired professor with many publications and honors to her credit. She and her husband, Robert, have four sons and nine grandchildren.