

M. DARRELL WILLIAMS

Darrell Williams has over thirty year's experience in politics, public policy advocacy and communications.

During the Reagan years, he was Director of the RNC Broadcast Services Department and a Field Communications Advisor.

He established the Bush/Quayle '88 Radio News Service and then rebuilt the White House Radio News Service.

He has lectured at the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard and conducted political workshops and public speaking seminars for the Republican National Committee, state Republican parties, GOPAC and for the International Republican Institute in Moscow and St. Petersburg, Russia. He remains a consultant to the Unified Russia Party.

In 2002, he became a senior partner in STRATEGIC MEDIA GROUP, a Washington, DC based public relations/advocacy media firm.

For more information, visit www.smgcommunicates.com.